

Tribal Energy Program Manager. Facilitates energy efficiency, subsidy programs, and deployment of renewable energy applications to energize the economy of the Bristol Bay Region. Will act as a key resource for the region by providing current information on energy issues, alternatives, and programs. Program goals include developing grants or contract proposals for Tribal Energy Program funding. Represent BBNA on various boards concerning energy. Promotes partnerships and coalitions of stakeholders to work together on Tribal initiatives that best promote Tribal goals for energy development in the region. Provides financial oversight of the program. Bachelor's Degree in Business, Economics, Rural Development or related field. Work experience in economic development, business management, or related fields may substitute for education requirements. Must have excellent writing and oral communication skills. Must be willing and able to travel in and out of the region. Prefer: Two years experience in planning or management with demonstrated successful grant-writing/ administering experience, and ability to facilitate community driven projects to completion. Familiarity with Bristol Bay area, people, and cultures. $45,000 - $71,000/yr. Reports to Program Development Director. Duty station: Dillingham Central Office. Closing date: 9-16-08

To apply, please request a detailed job description and application form from the Personnel Office okropoff@bbna.com , or download one from the BBNA web site www.bbna.com. Applications should include a cover letter which demonstrates an understanding of the position and the applicant's vision for meeting the challenge of Bristol Bay's energy needs. Questions are welcome. Patty Heyano, Dir. Of Program Development may be reached at pheyano@bbna.com. All of the above contacts may be reached at 1-800-478-5257 or 907-842-5257.